Doc. No. 57;
Page No. 13;
Book No. XIV;
Series of 1989.

Any issuance, sale or transfer of shares of the Common Stock, whether voluntary or otherwise and in violation of the foregoing condition shall be null and void and shall not be recognized or registered in the books of the Corporation. For the purpose of this provision, a Philippine national shall mean (1) a citizen of the Philippines as defined under the Philippine Constitution or (2) a partnership or association wholly owned by citizens of the Philippines, or (3) a corporation organized under the laws of the Philippines (a) of which at least sixty percent (60%) of the capital stock outstanding and entitled to vote are owned and held by citizens of the Philippines or by a trustee of funds for pension or other employee retirement or separation benefits where the trustee is a Philippine National and at least sixty percent (60%) of the funds will accrue to the benefit of the Philippine Nationals or (b) of which sixty percent (60%) of its members are citizens of the Philippines.

In the event that a stockholder is considered disqualified to own shares of the common stock of the Corporation, then the Corporation shall have the right to purchase in the name of the Corporation the shares of the common stock of the disqualified stockholder at book value, based on the latest available audited financial statements of the Corporation. Upon payment or tender thereof to the disqualified stockholder, the Secretary of the Corporation shall have full authority and shall be considered as the Attorney-in-fact of the disqualified stockholder to transfer the stockholder's share in favor of the Corporation and shall have the power to retain certificates of stocks purchased in violation of this provision. The disqualified stockholder upon demand shall surrender to the Corporation for cancellation the corresponding stock certificates duly endorsed. Failure to surrender and/or endorse such stock certificates, however, shall not bar to the retransfer and registration of such retransfer in the books of the Corporation.

This restriction shall be printed or indicated in all the certificates of stock to be issued by the corporation. (Amended as of March 21, 1994)

7. Fernando L. Trinidad	12,000,000	8,000,000	20,000,000.00
8. Ramon R. Torralba	12,000,000	8,000,000	20,000,000.00
